

CHAPTEE

XXIX.<C 1813.

The flag of the army of Italy and the eagles of 1813 — Entrance of the Allies int Switzerland — Summons to the Minister of Police — My refusal to accept a missio to Switzerland —
 yinJterv^i^iiSrMi.lA^LXaU^rand;;a^the.^uc de Vicence>
 Offer of a DukedonTandTiTe Grand Cordon of the Legion of Honor — Definitiv refusal — The Due de Vicence's message to me in 1815 — Commencement of th siege of Hamburg—A bridge two leagues long — Executions at Liibeck—Scarcity of provisions in Hamburg — Banishment of the inhabitants — Me bastinadoed and women whipped —Hospitality of the Inhabitants of Altom

Pages 311-31

CHAPTEB

XXX. 1813 —

1814

Prince Eugene and the affairs of Italy— The army of Italy on the frontiers of Am tria —Eugene's regret at the defection of the Bavarians — Murat's dissimulatio: and perfidy — His treaty with Austria — Hostilities followed by a declaration war—Murat abandoned by the French generals — Proclamation from Paris — Murat's success — Gigantic scheme of Napoleon — Napoleon advised to join th Jacobins —His refusal —Armament of% the National Guard —The Emperor¹ farewell to the officers—The Congress of Chatillon— Refusal of an armistice—Napoleon's character displayed in his negotiations — Opening of the Congress Discussions— Rupture of the conferences.....320-33

CHAPTEE

XXXI. 1814.

Curious conversation between General Reynier and the Emperor Alexander— Nape leon repulses the Prussians — The Russians at Fontainebleau — Battle of Brienu — Sketch of the campaign of France — Supper after the battle of Champ Auber — Intelligence of the arrival of the Due d'Angouleme and the Gomtc d'Artois i France — The battle of the ravens and the eagle —Battle of Craonne — Depai ture of the Pope and the Spanish Princes — Capture of a convoy — Macdonald a the Emperor's headquarters—The inverted cipher—ANNEX. 336-34

CHAPTEE

XXXII.

1814

The men of the Revolution and the men of the Empire — The Council of Regency—Departure of the Empress from Paris — Marmont and Mortier — Joseph's flight -Meeting at Marmont's htel — Capitulation of Paris —Marmont's interview wit! the Emperor at Fontainebleau — Colonels Fabvier and Denys — The Royalist cav alcade —Meeting at the hotel of the Comte de Morfontaine —M. de Chateau briand and his pamphlet — Deputation to the Emperor Alexander — Entrance o the Allied sovereigns into Paris — AlexandeModged in M.Tajle^i^ndJXMI^ -MjaejULng&Jbtfilj^^—The Emperor Seltander's decl'aTalTolir^Mytipointmen as Postmaster-General — Composition of the Provisional Government — Mistak respecting the conduct of the Ernperor of Austria — Caulaincourt's mission f ron Napoleon —His interview with the Emperor Alexander —Alexander's address t the deputation of the Senate—M. de Caulaincourt ordered to quit the capital

346-36